

LET THEM EAT SURF

1 x 30'

HISTORY

TRAVEL & ADVENTURE

Some came to France to escape the Vietnam War... some came in search of a paradise of empty waves, endless partying and beautiful women.

This documentary takes a look at Europe's first surf scene. We scoop the untold story of France's ungoverned beaches and the maverick surfers turned smugglers who abandoned conventional society in search of the last hold-out, an El Dorado of untapped waves in a magical place like no other.

With exclusive access we meet the characters who lived the dream at the end of surfing's heyday, we explore the counter-culture, we explore the wild coast!

