

HISTORY

Chronicling the life and significance of the Blessed Virgin Mary, her apparitions and appearances, and the 30th anniversary of the supernatural events in Medjugorje, Bosnia.

The film interweaves the journey of a dozen pilgrims as they visit the shrine to Our Lady of Medjugorje with the thoughts and perspectives of some of the world's most renowned Marian experts, including Judith Dupree and Charlene Spretinak.

We learn how Mary has assumed a greater role in the life and culture of our modern society through apparent supernatural events, and the devotion this has fostered with her millions of followers around the world.
