

SURF AND TURF

8 X 30' HD

Take two chefs – one with a passion for Surf, one with a passion for Turf. Send them to eight beautiful locations around Ireland to create local signature dishes. Invite twenty people from the area and let them decide the winner. Let Martin & Paul's Surf n' Turf challenge begin!

Martin Shanahan and Paul Flynn are two of Ireland's best known chefs. Both have a passion for Irish food and local produce. Martin has become an ambassador for Irish seafood while Paul is passionate about all forms of meat, especially pork. This new RTÉ Cork series celebrates the best of Irish produce in 8 beautiful locations.

Martin and Paul embark on a fantastic trip around Ireland, but this will be no holiday. They're being challenged to create signature dishes for every area they visit, using only the best of local ingredients. Martin will create the Surf dish while Paul serves up the Turf. They have 24 hours to source their local produce before creating their unique dishes. Twenty local people will then judge their meals but there can be only one winner – Surf or Turf.

At the core of the whole series is a real competitive spirit between the two chefs as they battle to win the Surf n' Turf challenge.
