

MUNEEZA IN THE MIDDLE

1 x 60' HD

The story of a 2nd generation Muslim at odds with her religion – one that urges followers to be modest in all facets of life. She's a confident, beautiful, and outspoken lawyer who dresses well and turns heads. If her unorthodox piercings don't catch your eye, her slim physique, fitted clothing, and cosmetic enhancements probably will.

But don't be fooled. Muneeza is a devout worshiper. She is also bound to challenge common stereotypes about Muslims. But her modern interpretation of the faith is catching up with her. Is she simply cherry picking the rules? Is her fight to maintain a unique identity justified? Does the religion create a double standard for women? These are just some of the questions that torment Muneeza once she has her first child. In order to set a good example, she wants to change for her daughter, but also doesn't want to lose herself.

The religion makes this struggle even more complex, but Muneeza's story will resonate with every woman who has become a mother.
